I, [REDACTED] want to make the following statement under oath and of my own free will: I do not remember the exact date of this incident. SGT [REDACTED] and CPL [REDACTED] arrived at the Camp Cedar BDOC at the conclusion of their shift to report to me that CPL Aguilar had an accidental discharge while clearing his weapon at CSC KENWORTH. CPL [REDACTED] stated to me that after his squad, along with elements from 3rd Platoon, completed processing and transporting out a large number of detainees to a local IP station that he was near the south ROM of CSC KENWORTH and began clearing his weapon. He further stated that while clearing it, he mistakenly pulled the trigger and fired one round into the dirt near the side of the road. CPL Aguilar continued to state that he informed his acting Squad Leader, SGT [REDACTED] as soon as he saw him to report the incident. Following the shift change, SGT [REDACTED] escorted CPL [REDACTED] to the BDOC to report the incident to me. I listened to CPL [REDACTED]'s statement, and at the time I did not doubt his integrity. Up to that point, I was unaware of any discipline or attitude issues with him. This was the first incident involving CPL [REDACTED] that I could recall. I was also impressed with the fact that he reported the incident to me rather than hide it. I decided on the spot to verbally counsel CPL [REDACTED] on the seriousness of the AD and what punishment he could expect if this were to happen again. At that point I considered the matter closed. On 5 July 04, I spoke to SGT [REDACTED] regarding his concerns for his safety. I asked SGT [REDACTED] to provide me information regarding why another soldier was so-frightened of [REDACTED]. SGT [REDACTED] then told me everything the other soldier knew of the incident for which CPL [REDACTED] being investigated. In addition to telling me that the other soldier had witnessed CPL [REDACTED] with large sums of money in his possession, SGT [REDACTED] told me that the other soldier knew more about the accidental discharge. It took me a moment or two to remember what he was talking about, eventually I was able to recall the incident. SGT [REDACTED] stated that the other soldier either witnessed or had heard from another source that CPL [REDACTED] did not in fact have an AD, he had purposely fired near one of the detained LN's prior to their transport to the ROM. I asked SGT [REDACTED] if he was there, and why he did not report this to me immediately. SGT [REDACTED] stated that when this incident occurred he had traveled back to the BDOC to obtain more detention forms and was not present at the site. I asked again if there were any other witnesses, and he stated that SPC [REDACTED] was nearly hit by the round when it was fired. I have not as of yet spoken to SPC [REDACTED] regarding this incident.

Q: When CPL [REDACTED] reported the accidental discharge to you, did he mention if anyone witnessed it?

A: No.

Q: Do you know if anyone witnessed it?

A: No, I do not.

b(6)(s) Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] receive any punishment?

A: I am not aware of any.

Q: Is the ammunition of the personnel working the ROM controlled and signed for?

A: It is controlled, we issue a basic load and as they expend any ammunition we will issue more ammunition. Usually after we conduct a small arms range we will prepare an expenditure report and re-issue ammunition.

b(6)(s) Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] state where he was while he was clearing his weapon?

A: I don't believe he did, I assumed it was near the south traffic control point at the south ROM.

Q: Did he mention if he was using the berm to clear his weapon?

A: No, I don't recall.

Q: What is the procedure for clearing the weapon when going from red status to yellow status?

A: Make sure the weapon is on safe and pointed away from an personnel or vehicles, preferably at the ground. Remove the magazine, eject the round, visually check the chamber then place the magazine back in the weapon.

Q: When would a soldier go from yellow status to red status?

A: If he were dealing with any unauthorized personnel within our perimeter, guarding detainees, when a soldier is prepared to engage a target or when traveling on the MSR's or ASR's. Also when a soldier feels threatened.

b(6)(s) Q: Was CPL [REDACTED] dealing with detainees on the day in question?

A: I believe he was guarding the detainees.

b(6)(s) Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] assist in the transport of the detainees?

A: No, he stayed at the ROM site.

Q: How many soldiers were guarding the detainees?

b(7)(F) b(2)-4 A: [REDACTED] I don't know exactly, we had a patrol provided by 3rd Platoon that was supporting the processing and transportation.

b(6)(s) Q: Would CPL [REDACTED] go from red status to yellow status while the detainees were still present?

A: No, he would have to wait until the detainees had been transported off the site.

Q: What is the difference in yellow status and red status?

A: In yellow status there is a magazine in the well, and red status there is a round chambered and the weapon is on safe.

Q: While guarding detainees are soldiers suppose to have their weapons on safe?

A: Yes, absolutely.

Q: Are your soldiers trained to have their finger on the trigger while guarding detainees?

A: No, specifically instructed to leave their finger off the trigger. All my soldiers have been through reflexive fire training, the finger is off the trigger at all times during this training unless they are engaging targets. They have put hundreds of rounds down range during this training.

b(6)(s) Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] take part in this training?

A: Yes he did at Ft. Lewis, WA.

b(6)(s) Q: Has CPL [REDACTED] received training on his weapon?

I, [redacted] want to make the following statement under oath:

(b)(6)-4, (b)(7)(C)-4

I am the Team Leader for 1st Platoon, 2nd Squad. We currently work the Entry Control Point (ECP) but prior to that we worked the Refuel on the Move (ROM) site. Around May or Jun 04, prior to reporting to work I heard on the radio that 3rd Squad needed assistance at a civilian bypass, right before the overpass, because they had six detainees and needed assistance. I sent half my guys to the South ROM and the other half, CPL [redacted] and myself went to assist 3rd Squad. We arrived and transported the detainees back to the North ROM. There were two other detainees at the North ROM when we arrived. So there were 8 detainees in all. After we arrived at the North ROM we released the night shift and gave the detainees MRE's and water. I realized we then need to start the paperwork and only had one form so I had to go back to the BDOC to obtain more Coalition Provisional Authority Apprehension Forms. I left CPL [redacted] in charge of the North ROM site with SPC [redacted] and SPC [redacted]. When I returned to the North ROM site CPL [redacted] approached me and told me he needed to talk to me. CPL [redacted] told me he had accidentally discharged his weapon because the Iraqi National would not shut up when he told him to be quiet. CPL [redacted] said this happened because he was trying to intimidate him. There was no mentioned by CPL [redacted] that SPC [redacted] was around when this occurred. I asked CPL [redacted] what he wanted to do and he said to go to BDOC and report it. I took CPL [redacted] to the BDOC and he reported it. That was the last I heard of it until three nights ago.

Q. Will the Iraqi Police still have the paperwork on the detainees?

A. They should. It was given to an Iraqi Police LT and the forms were blue in color.

A. No, I don't think so.

Q. Where exactly at the North ROM were the detainees being held?

A. Right behind the front guard shack, sitting on the Tall Texas rails. We rotated them in and out of the shade.

A. No. //End Of Statement//

I, [REDACTED] want to make the following statement under oath and of my own free will: I don't remember the exact date, but it was in later April or early May 04, I am not sure. We had some detainees at the north TCP of the ROM site, between the hours of 0700 and 1500. CPL [REDACTED] had an accidental discharge from his weapon. I was standing about one meter away from him at the entrance to the guard shack. I heard the shot fired I then turned to see CPL [REDACTED] with his weapon pointing in direction of some Iraqi detainees and there were two MCT soldiers in that vicinity also. At that point I asked him what happened and he told me he had an accidental discharge, because of what I saw I had anger towards him. In a loud voice I showed anger, and yelled at him, I told him what he did was stupid and it was wrong. At that time, because I was angry, I walked back to the M113 to check the battery levels. While I was at the M113 CPL [REDACTED] walked towards me, told me he was sorry and what happened should not have happened.

Q: Who was in charge of guarding the detainees?

b(6)(5) A: We all were. CPL [REDACTED] would have been the ranking soldier on location.

Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] show hostility towards any detainee?

A: Not that I saw.

Q: What is the general rule with your weapons when guarding detainees?

A: I would say have your weapon with you, at a minimum of yellow status with your weapon on safe.

Q: Why would CPL [REDACTED] have a round chambered?

A: He chambered a round earlier that morning, when we took the detainees into our control

Q: How long had the detainees been in your control before CPL [REDACTED] had the accidental discharge?

A: About three hours.

Q: Is it normal procedure to wait for three hours to clear your weapon?

STATEMENT OF SPC [REDACTED] TAKEN at the CID Office, Building 311, LSA Adder, Iraq, 8 Jul 04, CONTINUES.

A: Make sure your weapon is on safe, pointed in a safe direction away from anyone, disengage the magazine, pull the charging handle to the rear and hold it, visually watch the round eject, and visually inspect the chamber.

Q: During this training was your unit trained on the placement of your trigger finger?

A: Yes, your trigger finger should not be on the trigger.

Q: During this training did your unit receive training on when to place your finger on the trigger?

A: Yes, when you are engaging a target.

Q: Did your unit receive training on when to clear your weapon?

A: Usually we always cleared our weapon after an exercise while we are on a range during an exercise. In a real life situation you do not clear your weapon until you come back on base or when there is no more possibility of a threat.

Q: When CPL [REDACTED] was clearing his weapon, and had an accidental discharge was a threat still possible?

A: I didn't feel there was a threat present.

Q: Did you feel a threat during the three hours the detainees were in your custody?

A: No.

Q: Was there any specific order to keep your weapons locked and loaded?

A: No.

Q: If there would have been such an order, who would have given it?

A: The squad leader would have given it, or the NCOIC.

Q: Who was the NCOIC?

A: CPL [REDACTED] as he was the ranking person on location.

Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] give an order to keep your weapons locked and loaded?

A: No, there was no order to keep my weapon locked and loaded.

Q: Were you aware of anyone else having their weapon locked and loaded?

A: Negative, I didn't ask anybody.

Q: How far away from CPL [REDACTED] were you when the shot was fired?

A: About 1 meter.

Q: Did you visually witness the shot being fired?

A: Yes

Q: What did you see when CPL [REDACTED] fired the shot?

A: I saw him take aim in the direction where Iraqi's were in the vicinity and two MCT soldiers were in a vehicle. I saw the weapon discharge.

Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] bring the weapon up, take aim and fire in the direction of an Iraqi detainee?

A: Yes.

Q: Why did CPL [REDACTED] fire at a detainee?

A: That I do not know, I can only say he done it to scare them. I did not see anything go on that would make him angry at the detainees. My opinion is he was just fucking around and not giving a damn about his actions at that time.

Q: Was this an accidental discharge?

A: He took aim possibly at a target past them and squeezed the trigger.

Q: Did you witness him squeeze the trigger?

A: Yes.

Q: Was him squeezing the trigger an accident?

A: My opinion, no.

Q: What was his actions once he squeezed the trigger?

STATEMENT OF SPC [REDACTED] TAKEN at the CID Office, Building 311, LSA Adder, Iraq, 8 Jul 04, CONTINUES.

A: Rifled lowered and he sat there, I just kind of remember the look on his face, he just stared at the ground like he knew he just fucked up.

Q: Where did the round impact?

A: I did not see where the round impact, as far as I know the round did not strike any objects or people around us.

Q: Who else witnessed this?

A: SPC [REDACTED] (b)(7)(c)-4, (b)(6)-4

Q: Why did you state earlier in your statement that you did not witness CPL [REDACTED] b(6)(s) fire the weapon?

A: Because for some reason I did not want to believe I saw something that stupid happen. I have been under a lot of stress lately and it is something that I wish to forget than to remember.

b(6)(s) Q: Did CPL [REDACTED] ask you not to tell what happened?

A: No, he just told me to say If anyone asks me what happened, just tell them that I forgot to clear my weapon after the incident happened and it that it was an accidental discharge.

b(6)(s) Q: Do you know if an Iraqi detainee was struck with debris from the round CPL [REDACTED] fired?

A: No, I did not hear of any such injuries detainees received until today. I heard later that day that CPL [REDACTED] paid the Iraqi five dollars to keep his mouth shut about what happened.

Q: After CPL [REDACTED] fired the round, did he clear his weapon?

A: I didn't actually see if he did or not.

Q: Did the MCT soldiers witness this incident?

A: Yes, they witnessed it from a distance. They were outside the furthest barrier.

Q: About how far away were the MCT soldiers?

A: About 50 meters.

b(6)(s) Q: How far away from the detainees was CPL [REDACTED]

A: Ten to fifteen meters, I'm not exactly sure on the distance. At that time of day we were moving them back and forth to the shade.

Q: How far away from the detainees were the MCT soldiers?

A: The nearest detainees from them would have been 25 meters.

Q: Was the MCT soldiers also in the direction of the round fired by CPL [REDACTED]

b(6)(s) A: Roger, they would have been in that direction.

Q: Where you facing CPL [REDACTED] when he fired the weapon?

A: Yes.

Q: Where you in danger from his actions?

A: From where I was standing no, I would not say direct danger because the weapon was not pointed in my direction, but I would say on a lesser account not only myself, but everyone there was in danger because you cannot control the round once it comes out of the weapon. Who is to say it would not have hit one of the concrete barriers and came back at us.

b(6)(s) Q: When you say CPL [REDACTED] took up aim, what do you mean?

A: He pulled the weapon up to shoulder level, looked through his laser sight and fired the weapon; I don't know if the sight was on or off.

Q: Do have anything you wish to add to your statement?

A: No.///END OF STATEMENT///

WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:

At the beginning of our 2nd squad shift at 0700 hrs we assisted 3rd squad in apprehending 2 adult Iraqi nationals and 6 teenage Iraqi nationals. After collecting the individuals and transporting them to the North Rom site we were advised to hold the individuals at the North Rom. Myself SPC [REDACTED] and SPC [REDACTED] were assigned to be at the North Rom. SGT [REDACTED] and CPL [REDACTED] were assigned Big Dog 1. SGT [REDACTED] gave the reports to fillout, I handed off the reports to SPC [REDACTED] to complete. SPC [REDACTED] was the 240 gunner that day and SPC [REDACTED] was the tower overwatch, however he had to help in guarding the individuals. I also was watching over the individuals while providing them water and snacks from my care package. Approximately at 10am SGT [REDACTED] and CPL [REDACTED] brought ice and water to our station, at which time SGT [REDACTED] asked me to accompany him to the BDOC or Helicopter Base to turn in confiscated money and periph[REDACTED] CDs and cigarettes confiscated from the night before. Upon returning to the North Rom, CPL [REDACTED] and one of teenage individuals were by a K-rail in front of the guard shack. The teenager was crying and smoking a cigarette. CPL [REDACTED] told me that he had an accidental discharge. At this time CPL [REDACTED] jump in the Humvee and I got out and stay with the teenager. I then brought the teen back over to area by the guard shack. At that point I asked SPC [REDACTED] what happened and he said, "CPL [REDACTED] had an AD, I asked why and he said "I don't know." I then asked SPC [REDACTED] what happened and he said, "I was filling out the paperwork in the shack and heard it. He mention, "he had a discharge." To my disbelief, I did not think it was an AD but a negligent discharge to scare the individual. After wards the individual were turned over to 3rd platoon Rovers and escorted to Iraqi police station [REDACTED]."

I, [redacted] want to make the following statement under oath and of my own free will. I don't remember the exact date; I was squad leader on patrol and was called to the ROM site by Hell fighter base to help escort some Iraqi detainees to the IP Station. I picked up the individuals and their contraband. I filled out the coalition apprehension forms and the chain of evidence forms. Once I completed that, my squad delivered them to the IP Station. I made a written report at the IP station as to why they were arrested. On our way out, at the time CPL [redacted] came to me and said that one of the boys had told him that an American soldier had shot at him and given him five dollars to be quiet. I asked him if he could identify the soldier and he said no. The kids we had arrested had lied to us in the past and I didn't hear anything about a discharge of a weapon when I left the ROM, so I didn't put much stock in it. We went back to Cedar II and Hell fighter, I returned the evidence and apprehension forms to the OIC. I am fairly sure it was LT [redacted] I informed him that one of the boys had said that an American soldier had shot at him, what I remember is that he told me there was an accidental discharge at the ROM and the paperwork had been handled. I took his word for it and went back and continued my mission on patrol.

I, [redacted] want to make the following statement under oath and of my own free will: I don't know the exact date, we were the Romeo element called to transport about six or so detainees from the ROM site. When we got there the guys from 1st platoon were out there, they told us the detainees were out there. They also told us they were homosexual, or that they are being prostitutes. They told us they were selling cigarettes and liquor. We gave them water, asked if they needed food or medical attention. They all wanted soda and cigarettes. We re-searched them for weapons. We loaded them into the five ton, transported them to the IP station on ASR JACKSON. Once we arrived and we started off loading everybody, one of my soldiers told me that one of the kids wanted to report being shot at. Through an interpreter the kid told me that a short Mexican with a mustache fired a weapon in his general vicinity and gave him five dollars, so he would not say nothing. The kid appeared to be somewhat shaken, it could have been because he was at the police station, because he didn't appear to be bothered until we arrived there. The kid showed me the five dollars. I reported to my squad leader and he said he would turn it in to higher. Once we got back to our living area I asked around to find out if any fired a round at a kid. I was told at that time there was an accidental discharge while clearing weapons after they detained suspects.

Q: SA [redacted] (b)(7)(c)-1, (b)(6)-1

A: SGT [redacted] (b)(6)-4, (b)(7)(c)-4

Q: Did you type the above statement?

A: I dictated and SA [redacted] typed it. (b)(7)(c)-1, (b)(6)-1

Q: When you first arrived at the ROM site, who were the soldiers guarding the detainees?

A: 1st Platoon, the only one I really remember being there is SGT [redacted] and I believe SPC [redacted] I may be wrong on that. (b)(7)(c)-4, (b)(6)-4 (b)(7)(c)-4, (b)(6)-4

Q: Did any of the detainees need medical attention?

A: No body said they needed medical attention, we had a medic with us, but no one asked for it.

Q: Were all the detainees hand cuffed?

A: Yes.

Q: How were they hand cuffed?

A: With flexi cuffs or five fifty cord.

Q: Were their hands behind them or in front of them?

A: Some might have been in front and some behind. Usually we put their hands behind them until they are searched and then move them to the front. If they are kids we like to put their hands in the front and loosen them up.

Q: Were all the detainees transported in the same vehicle?

A: Yes.

I, [redacted] want to make the following statement under oath and of my own free will: In late May, approx. 0800 hrs, I was working at the Kenworth RON site when 4-6 subjects were detained. The subjects were in their early to mid teens and had been detained numerous times for trespassing on Kenworth. The subject in question calls himself "[redacted]" and is well known amongst Force Protection and MCT. At approx. 1000 hrs I positioned my vehicle between the guard shack and the guard tower, facing north, at the north ECP. "[redacted]" was seated, hands restrained behind his back, facing south next to a barrier approx. 20 feet in front and 10 feet to the left of my vehicle. SPC [redacted] was seated in a folding chair, outside of the guard shack approx. 20 feet behind "[redacted]", also facing south. SPC [redacted] fired 1 round from his M-4. The round impacted 12-18 inches from "[redacted]" left foot. After hearing the gunshot, I looked at SPC [redacted] and saw that he had his weapon in the mid-ready position. I then exited my vehicle ready to give SPC [redacted] "a piece of my mind" when SPC [redacted] stepped in. At that time I was a SPC also, and figured the incident should be handled within their unit. Earlier that morning, approx. 0900 hrs, SPC [redacted] made the comment that he "Should fire a round near one of the detainees just to scare the shit out of them."

Q- Was SPC [redacted] sitting down or standing up when he fired his weapon?

A- He was sitting.

Q- Was [redacted] injured during the incident?

A- Not physically.

Q- Why do you think SPC [redacted] shot at [redacted]?

A- I feel that SPC [redacted] is a sadistic person and did it for his own enjoyment.

A- It did not seem to phase him he had a smirk on his face afterward.

^{(b)(7)(C)-4, (b)(6)-4} I, [redacted] want to make the following statement under oath: ^{(b)(7)(C)-4, (b)(6)-4}
In the middle or end of May 04, I was working MCT at the southbound side of the ROM Site at CSC Kenworth. I was sitting in my HMMWV and observed CPL [redacted] sitting in a chair with his weapon resting on his lap guarding detainees at the ROM site. The kids, who were detainees, were talking among themselves and CPL [redacted] told them to shut up repeatedly. As I was watching CPL [redacted] fired a shot in the direction of one of the kids, which struck the road very close to the kid. The shoot startled me [redacted] ^{(b)(7)(C)-4, (b)(6)-4}

- Q. [redacted] ^{(b)(7)(C)-4, (b)(6)-4}
A. [redacted] ^{(b)(7)(C)-4, (b)(6)-4}
Q. Did CPL [redacted] have both hands on his weapon?
A. Yes.
Q. How many detainees were being held at the ROM site?
A. 4 or 5 but I can't remember exactly.
Q. How old was the detainee that CPL [redacted] shot at?
A. I would say 13 to 15. Somewhere in there.
Q. Did CPL [redacted] fire at the detainee on purpose?
A. In my best judgment yes. Knowing CPL [redacted] s character and how he was behaving he was not one to accidentally fire his weapon.
Q. How was CPL [redacted] behaving?
A. He was obnoxious and vulgar.
Q. Did you CPL [redacted] bring his weapon up to his shoulder and fire it?
A. He never moved.
Q. Was CPL [redacted] standing or sitting when he fired his weapon?
A. Sitting.
Q. Did it appear that CPL [redacted] was trying to clear his weapon?
A. No.
Q. How close to the detainee did the round strike?
A. Within a couple of feet. ^{(b)(6)(S)}
Q. What did the detainee do after CPL [redacted] fired at him?
A. He got closer to the jersey barrier and tried to shield himself from the CPL [redacted] ^{(b)(6)(S)}
Q. What did CPL [redacted] do after he fired the shot?
A. He sat there for a few minutes and he and [redacted] exchanged words for a few minutes ^{(b)(7)(C)-4, (b)(6)-4} and then he just sat there for a good 5 to 10 minutes.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED] [REDACTED] TAKEN AT 78 MP DET (CID) (-), LSA Adder, Tallil, Iraq APO AE 09331, DATED 17 Aug 03 CONTINUED:

- Q. What was CPL [REDACTED] saying to the detainees prior to firing his weapon?
- A. No, just shut the fuck up which was repeated. I am sure he said more but that is the phrase that sticks in my head.
- Q. Where was your HMMWV located at the time CPL [REDACTED] fired at the detainee?
- A. In the median. The detainee was about 10 yards away and CPL [REDACTED] was about 15 yards away. The detainee was in the middle of CPL [REDACTED] and our HMMWV.
- Q. Did you say anything to CPL [REDACTED] about the shooting?
- A. When he came past the truck and apologized, I pretty much said you should be you scared the shit out me.
- Q. What did CPL [REDACTED] say to you after he fired at the detainee?
- A. He apologized for scaring me and that was pretty much it.
- Q. Have you ever seen the detainee CPL [REDACTED] fired at before?
- A. Yes, he is a regular.
- Q. Do you know the detainees name?
- A. No.
- Q. Have you seen the detainee since this incident?
- A. Yes, I saw him several times after that.
- Q. Have you seen the detainee recently?
- A. No.
- Q. Did you see CPL [REDACTED] give the detainee anything?
- A. I don't know.
- Q. What time of day did this occur?
- A. Late morning.
- Q. Why do you think CPL [REDACTED] fired at the detainee?
- A. I didn't hear this, but someone had told me something to the effect of he was going to do this before it happened. Something like shut the fuck up or I am going to shot at you. My own opinion of him, I was not surprised he did.
- Q. Do you remember who told you that?
- A. SGT [REDACTED]
- Q. Did SGT [REDACTED] tell you anything else?
- A. Yes, he said that CPL [REDACTED] did it on purpose, I kind of thought he did but was not certain, and SGT [REDACTED] told me that CPL [REDACTED] was going to say it was an accident.
- Q. Did CPL [REDACTED] have a mustache at the time of this incident?
- A. No.
- Q. Do you have anything else you would like to add to this statement?

I was contacted by SGT [Redacted] on 8-5-04 and he asked about the shooting incident on the R.O.M. I told him that we were going through a CID investigation regarding an incident at the R.O.M. He then told me about the shooting regarding [Redacted]. He told me that he witnessed the actual incident. He told me that he heard [Redacted] say that he was going to fire his weapon. SGT [Redacted] stated that when [Redacted] fired the bullet ricochet about 15 feet from his humvee. He got out to tell [Redacted] about shooting his rifle but SPC [Redacted] was already yelling at [Redacted]. He also said that the kid was going crazy over the shooting. I asked him why he did not say anything to me that day and he said he saw me and [Redacted] talking on the side. I had not seen SGT [Redacted] for the last two months until his transportation unit began working MCT at Camp Cedar. I believe his unit's office is next door to your office. SGT [Redacted] said that he would be willing to talk to you if you needed him to give a statement. He asked to be contacted at work. He works at MCT in Camp Cedar near the staging lot as you first drive into Cedar. He will be working from 0900-2000 hrs on 8-6-04. He will be off on 8-7-04.

Chiefs,

I am going to be sending an Initial SSI on the following incident and wanted to see if I have the charges correct:

CPL [redacted] ^{b(c)(5)} fired his weapon in the direction of a detained Iraqi National at CSC Kenworth, North Checkpoint, to scare or intimidate the detainee. This incident was witnessed by another soldier who provided a sworn statement. CPL [redacted] also gave the Iraqi National $5 to keep quiet about the incident. CPL [redacted] reported the incident as an accidental discharge and provided a statement to his chain of command and received a counseling statement.

The charges I see are the following:

- Maltreatment of a detainee
- Art 107: False official statement
- Art 92: Failure to obey order or regulation
- Art 134 [22]: Discharging firearm, willfully, under such circumstances as to endanger human life

CPL [redacted] ^{b(c)(5)} is our boy from the Robbery of the 3 Iraqi Nationals. What a winner. If you could let me know what you think.
